

6516205283.txt

I strongly urge you to oppose the NAB's petition 04-160. There is no basis for consumers not to be able to choose their provider of information over the airwaves. It is our choice to use satellite radio and the NAB should try competing against satellite radio instead of using the government to interfere with basic rights protected under the first amendment. Technology and progress will be slowed if you do not reject this petition.

Thank you for your time.